

Missouri S&T Woman Student Of the Year Award

Nominations due by September 16, 2016

Do you know a female student of Missouri S&T who deserves recognition for positive contributions to the lives of women? If so, take a few minutes to read the requirements for nominating her for the Missouri S&T Woman Student of the Year Award.

Sponsored by the women faculty at Missouri S&T, the Missouri S&T Woman Student of the Year Award will be given to a female student enrolled full-time during the current semester who is dedicated to student peer support and committed to diversity.

She serves as a role model by her:

- Achievements in her professional field
- Commitment to education
- Support for diversity
- Respect for individual achievement and differing viewpoints
- Willingness to speak out on issues that affect the quality of women's lives

The recipient will be honored at a special ceremony on October 10, 2016 from 2:30 – 3:30 p.m. in connection with Missouri S&T Homecoming. The ceremony will be held in St. Pat's Ballroom A of the Havener Center. In addition, thanks to the generosity of Missouri S&T Named Women Faculty, the recipient will receive a plaque and a cash award.

Please don't miss this opportunity to honor a female student who has made a difference in women's lives. If you have questions about the nomination process, you may contact Cecilia Elmore, at elmorec@mst.edu.
